

AGREEMENT

_____ (carver) wish to use the designated carver camping area during the 2014 Chainsaw Carving Festival. The carver, their heirs, successors, executors and assigns, shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the City of Reedsport and its respective officers, employees, and agents from any and all claims, actions, damages, court costs, judgments, penalties, fines, and other expenses ("claims"), including claims for property loss and personal injury (including death) that may be prosecuted, asserted, or charged resulting from usage of the designated camping area from June 11, 2014- June 17, 2014.

Pursuant to the use of the carver camping area, the carver acknowledges and agrees, on behalf of themselves and the members of the carver's party residing with the carver at the event, to the following:

- The Reedsport Municipal Code requires that no person shall cause to be made any loud or disturbing noise which either annoys or disturbs the health, safety, peace or comfort of others.

- No outdoor fires are authorized other than cook stoves and propane heaters.

If the carver or member of the carver's party residing with the carver at the event do not comply with the terms of this agreement or displays or takes part in acts that are deemed to be unbecoming by the Chainsaw Carving Committee, members of the Reedsport City staff or event staff, may cause the carver and members of the carvers party, to be removed from the designated camping area. Removal from the camping area could also result in removal from the event and potential ban from future events.
